

British Veterinary Hospitals Association

Visiting Weekend to Copenhagen
May 20-22, 2016

Where We Are Staying

We will be staying at the Radisson Blu Falconer Hotel.

- All rooms are well-appointed and include amenities like free high-speed, wireless internet and showcase views of the vibrant cityscape.
- There is a neighbouring gym facility for those who wish to keep fit.
- Exclusive discounted rates for the BVHA visiting weekend.

The Radisson Blu is the only city hotel with:

- A direct metro line to Copenhagen International Airport.
- Close proximity to the university including the veterinary school.
- Close to the Fredericksburg Gardens, the Copenhagen Zoo, the Tivoli Gardens and the Carlsberg Brewery.

The Itinerary

- The highlight of the visit will be a tour of the newly refurbished University of Copenhagen Veterinary School.
- There will be a welcome reception on Friday evening.
- Saturday morning will be spent at the Vet School and a coach will take us to visit two private veterinary practices in the afternoon.
- On Saturday evening there will be a dinner in a typical Danish restaurant.
- Sunday will be free to visit beautiful Copenhagen. A visit to the Mermaid Statue is a must before returning home on Sunday evening.

The Copenhagen Veterinary School

- Saturday morning will be spent visiting the Veterinary School in Copenhagen and meeting with some of the staff.
- We will have lunch there as well and plenty of time to chat and look round.

- The prep and teaching areas.
- The examination and ICU facilities are particularly interesting.

The Karlslunde Veterinary Hospital

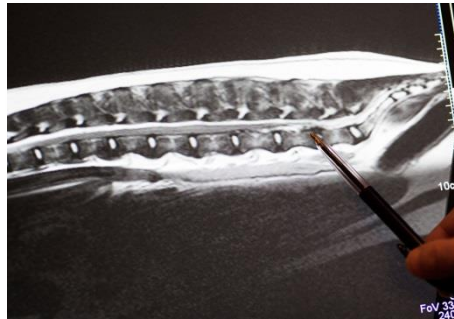

This state-of-the-art, well equipped veterinary hospital has achieved the ISO 9001 award.

The AniCura Veterinary Hospital

AniCura is a leader in specialized veterinary care for companion animals offering a professional, high quality, healthcare environment with modern, advanced equipment.

The Dinner

- The formal dinner will be held on Saturday night at the Cap Horn restaurant on the waterfront at beautiful Nyhavn.
- This charming restaurant has kept its original interior with old walls, wooden floors, fireplace, chairs and plates that do not match, and quaint knick-knacks placed here and there, all of which attribute to a relaxed and homely atmosphere.
- The chefs use only fresh organic ingredients.

Beautiful Copenhagen
